

We hope you enjoy the new format of our newsletter! Reply to this email with your feedback!

2017 Saint Saviour High School Alumnae Newsletter

Click the above photo to purchase this magnet!

We look forward to seeing many alumnae and friends at Gargiulo's Restaurant on June 11!

Click here for more details and to purchase tickets.

Purchase a 100th Anniversary Tshirt! Click for details

2017 Mother-Daughter Luncheon
Black and White Ball
Celebrating 100 years of Saint Saviour High School
Saturday, April 1, 2017

We are still in need of donated items for our 43rd Annual Mother Daughter Luncheon which takes place on April 1 at Gargiulo's Restaurant. This year's event is being chaired by two alums who are currently parents of daughters in our school - Erinkate Joseph Peart '91 and Mary Wilson Nolan '91. Do you have credit card points that can be used towards gift cards? We are also looking for experiences, tickets to local attractions and restaurant gift cards!

We also created a wish list via Amazon for some needed items: <http://a.co/jlSrVUm>.

Congrats to Carmen '77!

Congrats to Carmen Pacheco, Esq. '77 who was sworn in as President of the Puerto Rican Bar Association on its 60th Anniversary on January 12!

She is founding partner of Pacheco & Lugo, PLLC the first women owned Hispanic law firm in New York established at One World Trade Center in 1992, now located in Brooklyn. It is a full service practice providing high quality and cost efficient legal services to members of the Wall Street community and small and medium sized businesses. The firm assists entrepreneurs and business enterprises in the strategic startup and development of a business.

Carmen is a proud Saviourite who also mentors St. Saviour High School students at her law firm; some have even interned through the years. Panda Pride!!

Tara Hodgens Schneider '90, Carmen and Diana Basil Nilsen '77

Congrats to our St. Patrick's Parade Honorees!!

Congrats to Kristen Hayes '01 who was named Deputy Marshal, Education for the Bay Ridge St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Congrats to current swim coach, Julia Dineen '13 on being named an aide to the Grand Marshal for Irish Culture and current parent Heleana O'Driscoll-Ryan '84 on being name an aid to the Grand Marshal, Public Education for the Brooklyn Irish American Parade in Park Slope!

Panda at Allstate

Vera L. Batista '09 is currently a licensed agent currently working at the Ciccone Agency for Allstate Insurance, located at 684 5th avenue, in Park Slope. If any alums are looking for insurance or would like for Vera to review your insurance, she can be reached at 718-412-9192 ext. 106. Vera can assist you with auto, home, and life insurance plus other financial services like retirement fund and mortgage protection.

Allstate

Have you seen our videos?

Alums in the news

Head of our board of advisors, Judy Fallon '79 with P. O. Matthew Gullo of the Counterterrorism Bureau Canine Unit and his K-9 Partner, Maddy!

Check out Vicky Nilsen '16 who is a member of the George Washington Cheer team! She has been cheering at their D1 Men's Basketball games all season!

<https://youtu.be/8WvsospDkiw>

School Sisters of Notre Dame who live at the border in Douglas, Arizona, have been marching, praying and protesting with the SOA Watch Border Convergence at the U.S.-Mexico border. Alumna, Sr. Patricia Ferrick, SSND is part of this group. Click to read the full story...

There are many ways you can help Saint Saviour; consider making a gift to help us continue educating young women to be leaders.

We have received just over $96,000 in donations from 377 donors! Help us reach our goal of $250,000!!

Does your company match gifts? If so, that can double your donation!

Click to make a Gift

Saint Saviour HS | 588 Sixth Street, Brooklyn, NY 11215

Unsubscribe

About our service provider

Sent by bove.c@stsaviour.org in collaboration with

Try it free today