WHAT MAKES SSHS DIFFERENT AND STAND OUT?

Sisterhood. Rich traditions. Stimulating academics. Expert faculty. Leadership. Service. Faith. And so much more. Everything combines to provide a transformation in our students. St. Saviour has more than 106 years of educating young women. We know how girls think. We nurture girls. We empower girls. We guide girls as they develop into leaders who go out and change the world.

“Research shows girl’s school graduates, compared to co-educated peers, are more likely to exhibit:

- Greater cultural competency
 - Stronger community involvement
 - Increased political engagement”
- (NCGS.org, June 2021)
